

Hannah A. GSSNE Girl Scout

Meet Hannah. She is 13 years old, and a Girl Scout Cadette with Attleboro, MA Troop 4961. Hannah is a motivated leader and go-getter. She is also a proud member of the G.I.R.L. Media Team!

“Girl Scouts has a really comfortable atmosphere where you feel supported. It’s a space where you can find out the things you like and don’t like and have freedom to discover.

Being a Girl Scout has taught me that just because you are a girl, it does NOT limit your abilities. It continues to teach me about the meaning of equality and my power as a girl in the world. One of my most favorite things that my troop did was take a trip to Washington, DC. I saw and learned so much from the experience.

I think other girls should be Girl Scouts simply because it will teach them about the meaning of empowerment!”

Your financial support is so very important as we build the next generation of girls—girls just like Hannah.
