

Girl Scouts of Southeastern New England Leading Women of Distinction Awards Honoree: MaryKay Koreivo

MaryKay Koreivo is a Senior Vice President and Senior Relationship Manager for the Rhode Island market in Commercial Banking at Bank of America Merrill Lynch. In this capacity, her responsibilities include leading a team of specialists focused on understanding each client's unique needs to deliver strategic financial guidance and solutions. MaryKay's mission is to help local companies thrive by achieving their business goals, no matter how simple or complex.

Bringing 25 years of experience, MaryKay joined Bank of America Merrill Lynch in 2014. She began her banking career at Citizens Bank where she was most recently Relationship Manager in the Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts markets with a focus on middle market and not-for-profit corporations. Throughout her banking career, MaryKay has served small to mid-sized companies to support their commercial banking needs.

To help create a more sustainable future for the companies and communities she serves, MaryKay volunteers with several not-for-profit organizations. In support of early childhood literacy, she is an active member of the United Way of RI's Women United where she serves on the Executive Committee and as Chairperson of the Membership Committee. MaryKay also volunteers as a Loan Committee member for Social Enterprise Greenhouse, which creates positive social and economic impacts by supporting social entrepreneurs and enterprises. In addition, she is immediate past president of the Executive Women's Golf Association of RI, currently volunteers in the association's charity fundraisers, and serves as Coordinator of its Cranston League. As a dance enthusiast, MaryKay serves on the Board of Directors and Finance Committee for the Island Moving Company, the not-for-profit Newport-based contemporary ballet company. She also serves as a mentor for teammates across Bank of America Merrill Lynch as a member of Power of Ten, a grassroots program that encourages women to expand their career horizons.

Originally from Boonton Township, NJ, MaryKay graduated with a B.S in Business Administration/Finance Major from the University of Rhode Island. She continued her education at Bryant University where she earned a Master's in Business Administration. She now resides with her family in Cumberland, RI. As a Girl Scout Alum, MaryKay shared that two sessions of overnight camp were her first experiences of extended time away from her family and she was proud of her independence at such a young age!
