About Girl Scouts of Southeastern New England

GSSNE is one of 112 Girl Scout councils in the United States. Our council includes girls from all over Rhode Island; from Pawcatuck, CT; and from 13 communities in southeastern MA: Bellingham, Blackstone, Attleboro, Fall River, North Attleboro, Plainville, Somerset, Swansea, Westport, Wrentham, Millville, Rehoboth, and Seekonk.

Girl Scouts bring their dreams to life and work together to build a better world. Through programs across Southeastern New England, Girl Scouts of all backgrounds and abilities can be unapologetically themselves as they discover their strengths and rise to meet new challenges—whether they want to climb to the top of a tree or the top of their class, lace up their boots for a hike or advocate for climate justice, or make their first best friends. Backed by trusted adult volunteers, mentors, and millions of alums, Girl Scouts lead the way as they find their voices and make changes that affect the issues most important to them.

About Mount Saint Charles Academy

Mount Saint Charles Academy is a private, Catholic, junior-senior High School in the tradition of the Brothers of the Sacred Heart that serves a co-educational community in a college preparatory environment. Mount is located in Woonsocket, Rhode Island and serves students from throughout New England. At Mount, students are challenged through a rigorous academic program, faith-based learning, and co-curricular experiences to become young adults that use their talents and intellects to serve others.
